EDITOR'S NOTE

This school year has been especially enjoyable for me as editor of Reflections '84 because of the dedication and hard work of several people. I would like to express my appreciation to the following: Mrs. Annette Mayo who served as Harrisonburg High School's yearbook advisor, Mrs. Kay White who served as Harrisonburg Elementary School's yearbook advisor, Mrs. Vera Smith and Mrs. Eloise Hughes who helped in advertisement sales for the yearbook, and Mrs. Carolyn Patten who graciously allowed us to use her home for photography sessions. With the help and creativity of the yearbook staff, my job was made less burdensome. This staff worked consistently and conscientiously to produce a fine memory book. I cannot omit the parents who were both supportive and interested in this project.

I feel honored to have had the opportunity to work with these people and to add yet another Reflection to the memories of the present students at Harrisonburg Elementary School and my fellow students at Harrisonburg High School. I will always appreciate this opportunity to serve my school as editor of Reflections '84.
